

POETRY.

THE DYING WIDOW.

From "A Day in the Woods," by Thomas Miller, Basket Maker.

Those cold white curtain folds displace—
That form I would no longer see;
They have assumed my husband's face,
And all night long it looked at me:
I wish'd it not to go away,
Yet trembled while it did remain;
I closed my eyes, and tried to pray—Alas! I tried in vain.

I know my head is very weak, I've seen what Fancy can create;
I long have felt too low to speak, Oh! I have thought too much of late—I have a few requests to make:
Just wipe these blinding tears away;
I know your love, and for my sake
You will them all obey.

My child has scarce a month been dead,
My husband has been dead but five;
What dreary hours since then have fled!
I wonder I am yet alive.
My child, through him death aim'd the blow,
And from that hour I did decline;
Thy coffin, when my head lies low,
I would have placed on mine.

Those letters which my husband sent Before he perished on the deep;
What hours in reading them I've spent,
Whole nights, in which I could not sleep,
Oh! they are worn with many a tear, Scarce fit for other eyes to see;
But oft when sad they did me cheer—
Pray bury them with me.

This little cap my Henry wore,
The very day before he died;
And I shall never kiss it more—
When dead you'll place it by my side;
I know these thoughts are vain, but oh!
What will a vacant heart not crave!
And as none else can love them so,
I'll hear them to my grave.

The miniature that still I wear, When dead, I would not have removed,
'Tis on my heart—oh! leave it there,
To find its way to where I loved;
My husband threw it round my neck,
Long, long before he called me bride;
And I was told that midst the wreck,
He kissed me ere he died.

There's little that I care for now, Except this simple wedding ring,
I faithfully have kept my vow,
And feel not an accusing sting, I never yet have laid it by A moment since my bridal day,
Where he first placed it on my finger,
Oh! take it not away!

Now wrap me in my wedding gown,
You scarce can think how cold I feel;
And smooth my ruffled pillow down:
Oh! how my clouded senses reel!
Great God! support me to the last!
Oh! let more air into the room,
The struggle now is nearly past,
Husband and child I come.

Old London Particular,

MADIRA WINE.

THIS Wine is warranted to be pure and unadulterated, having been directly imported from the Island of Madeira, from the well known and long established Vintners, L. HOWARD, MARCH & CO. to the port of Wilmington, N. C.
The subscribers feel no hesitation in assuring their customers, that all that is necessary to confirm their recommendation, is a trial of the Wine. Being perfectly convinced of the fraud which is generally innocently practised upon the community at large, by selling of Acidulated and Fermented Wines, which are made sweet by the use of the Acetate of Lead, those unpleasant effects of headache, &c., they have been named to make arrangements with the above named house to supply the luxuries of drinking good and pure Wine, can do so by buying of the subscribers, at the Drug and Apothecary store, on the corner of Fayetteville and Market streets. WILLIAMS, HAYWOOD & CO.

DR. PRATT'S,

Artificial Nipple Shield.

FOR the prevention and cure of Sore Nipples. The following highly respected certificates are deemed a sufficient recommendation for those who are afflicted in this manner, to try them.

From Doctor Wm. P. Dewees, late Professor of Obstetrics, in the Medical University of Philadelphia:
Doct. ELIAH PRATT:
DEAR SIR: As I feel it a matter of great public importance, to possess a means of lessening the terrible sufferings from sore Nipples, I have much pleasure in being able to say, that the "Shield" you offer for the preventing and the cure of this malady, is better adapted to the purpose than any I have heretofore seen. In the two or three instances I have known them to be used, much satisfaction has been expressed; and I have no hesitation to believe it will generally succeed. I am so well persuaded of this, at this moment, that I cannot forbear to express a wish that our city, through the various Apothecaries, may be supplied with them.
I am yours, &c.
M. P. DEWEES, M. D.
Philadelphia, Jan. 13, 1834.

From Dr. Thomas Seawall, Professor of Anatomy and Physiology, Columbia College, District of Columbia:
WASHINGTON CITY, 4TH FEB., 1834.
Having examined Dr. Pratt's newly invented Nipple Shields, and witnessed its practical application, among my patients, I take great pleasure in recommending it as decidedly superior to anything previously known. It constitutes a perfect remedy for that distressing malady, Sore Nipples; a disease which so frequently afflicts young women.

tional disorders of the Stomach, Bowels, Liver and Spleen; such as heart burn, acid eruc-tations, nausea, head-ache, pain and distention of the stomach and bowels, ineffectual diarrhoea, colic, flatulence, habitual constipation, loss of appetite, sick head-ache, sea-sickness, &c. &c.
They are a safe and comfortable agent for Females during pregnancy and subsequent confinement, relieving sickness at the stomach, head-ache, heart-burn and many of the incidental nervous affections. Literary men, students and most other persons of sedentary habits, find them very convenient. Those who indulge too freely in the pleasures of the Table, find speedy relief from the sense of oppression and disten-tion which follow, by taking the Pills. As a dinner Pill they are invaluable. Those who are drinking mineral waters, and particularly those from southern climates and aque and fever districts, will find them a valuable adjunct. Those who are exposed to the vicissitudes of weather on voyages or journeys, can take them at all times with perfect safety. In full doses, they are a highly efficacious and safe Anti-bilious Medicine. They seldom or never produce sickness at the stomach or griping.

Their efficacy is strongly attested by certificates

GOODS! GOODS!! GOODS!!!

Selling off, and must be got through with by a specified time.
WHILE in the City of New-York, I made certain engagements, which compel me to close my business in this place. With this in view, I return to the citizens of Raleigh, and to my friends in the country, my grateful thanks for their past liberal patronage, and invite them to call and get GREAT BARGAINS. It is of little effect to use the hackneyed phrase "at cost," for Goods, badly bought, are even dearer at that, and some no doubt, will have to be sold for less than cost—for I must get rid of them speedily.

The Members of the Assembly wishing to purchase any article for themselves or for their families, will do well to call and get cheap goods.
All persons having any claims against the subscriber, will bring them forward by the first of by note or open account, will call and pay the same by that time. JOHN PRIMROSE.

Farmer's View

FOR SALE.
THE Subscriber is anxious to move to the West, and offers for sale his Tract of Land whereon he now resides, lying on Deep River, in Chatham County, twelve miles above Haywood, one and a half below Evans' Bridge, four and a half below the Gulf, and twelve south of Fayetteville; containing Twelve Hundred and Sixty acres; more than one half lay in the Bend of the River, Six Hundred acres of which are cleared, and may be called first and second low grounds. There is a great deal of very good Land to clear, a good site for a Cotton Factory, and a Merchant Mill on the River. One half of this site is owned by Peter Evans, Esq. This Tract is less subject to be injured by high water than any tract on the River. It is very level for this section of country, and very productive for Corn, Wheat, Cotton, &c. It is sufficient to say Twenty-five or Thirty hands can be worked to very great advantage, and the farm made richer every year. The plantation is in good repair; well watered, the situation high and healthy; on it is a large Frame Dwelling House, four rooms below and three above, with six fire places, and a large frame Barn, fifty-two feet by twenty-four; in it is a large Wheat Thrasher and a Cotton Gin, a Cotton Screw, and necessary out-houses. For the information of persons in the lower part of the State, I refer them to Peter Evans, Esq. of Edgecombe; he owns the land immediately above me, on the opposite side of the River. I offer to sell part or all, so as to suit the purchaser. I advise those who wish to get a bargain and a good Farm to apply and shew. The subscriber can be found on the plantation at any time.
